

INTERNATIONAL SAFETY GUIDE FOR TANKERS AND TERMINALS (ISGOTT 6) IS HERE !!

New important requirements for Cargo Procedures, Ship-Shore interface, Bunkering, Hot work and Enclosed space entry, etc. and a Novel Approach to Safe Working Practices, incl. Human Element considerations, call for immediate action!!!

- Revision of Cargo Procedures
- Revision of the Ship-Shore Safety checklist and filling-in instructions
- Revision of requirements for static accumulator cargoes
- Revision of requirements for operation of air-conditioning & ventilation systems
- Revision of requirements for operational standards of P/V Breaker
- Revision of requirements on retention & disposal of samples (cargo & bunkering)
- New standards for operation and retirement of cargo hoses
- Revision of Bunkering Safety checklist and filling-in instructions
- Adoption of procedures for de-bunkering and bunkering of ancillary substances
- Changes of Hot work procedures and permit issuance
- Changes of Enclosed space entry procedures and permit issuance
- Implementation of LO-TO for tagging the valves - procedures for lock-out/tag-out (LO TO) and energy isolation
- New procedures on Stop Work Authority (SWA)
- New procedures on Simultaneous Operations (SIMOPS)
- New procedures on safety related to Human Factor and Identification and analysis of Safety Critical Tasks

Alpha Marine Consulting can be your partner in ensuring compliance